INDEPENDENT BAPTIST FELLOWSHIP

Preparing Pastors Planting Churches
Promoting Fellowship

Good morning friends:

So how are you doing with the snow? I used to hate it. But then I made a decision to like it. After all, God makes it and Romans 8.28 applies here too. Think about what Isaiah wrote: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow." That's awesome. That's what God did for us.

We meet next on 3/10 with Troy Calvert at Fairfax Baptist Temple. The preachers will be Evangelist Wayne McCray and Pastor Marc Deloach. The lunch menu will include chicken cordon bleu and tilapia. Refreshments will be available in the foyer starting at 9:30 for those who are able to come early. Don't miss this one.

Going forward, there are two items to mention. First, we are still supporting 7 men starting new churches. That is terrific. Pray for one of them now if you can. Plus we have another ready to recommend; a second application to review; and I heard from yet two more who are planning to apply. What do you think? I believe God is raising up men and new churches. We need every one of them and more. It is glory to be a part of AIBF and church planting. Thanks.

The other item is the annual election of officers. We will vote at the April meeting. If you are eligible to vote but cannot attend, email your choices to the fellowship secretary. The present officers are tasked with preparing a ballot from the nominations you submitted. Here are the nominees for the next year:

President: Dan MacAvoy
Vice President: Jerry Davis
Secretary/Treasurer: Mike Reid
Councilman: Rick Conner

Now how about you? Are you coming to Fairfax? It won't be the same without you (for us or you!). I hope the Lord works out things so you can come. We're expecting to have a blast.

I appreciate you pastors. Thanks for your friendship. God knows pastors need good and Godly friends.

Dan MacAvoy
